2.5 Competition / Pointscore

Awards will be presented in the categories listed below:

The top three in each category receive medals.

For the overall ranking (category C and D), trophies will be awarded in separate rankings for German regional federations and national teams.

A) Overall individuals (separated into male/female)

Each competitor may compete in up to five individual events in accordance with sect. 2.3 A. The best four results will be included in the individual overall point score.

B) Overall relays (separated into male/female)

Each delegation can compete in up to four relays in accordance with section 2.3 B, all results (separately for males and females) and the result of the "Mixed Pool Lifesaver Relay" (2.3 C) will be included in the overall relay point score.

C) Overall scoring for the regional DLRG teams is the result of:

- I. The top four male and female individuals' overall scorings (2.5. A)
- II. The top male and female relay scoring (2.5. B)
- III. The team scoring for the "Mixed Pool Lifesaver Relay" (mixed event 2.3 C)

D) Overall scoring for National teams is the result of:

- I. The top four male and female individuals' overall scorings (2.5. A)
- II. The overall relay scoring (male and female) (2.5. B)
- III. The team scoring for the "Mixed Pool Lifesaver Relay" (mixed event) (2.3.C)

E) Each individual event will be evaluated separately. There will be medals for the top three places

The evaluation is based on rating points which are based on the points table of the national rulebook of the DLRG. Therefore, the world record valid before the start of the event, is set at 1000 points. The points are then awarded according to the scoring formula.

2.5.1 Announcement of Results

Intermediate and final results will be published in the swimming hall. Objections against these results must be announced as regulated in the ILS Competition Rulebook.
